

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL, GANDHINAGAR

Academic session 2019-20

Event Report

Title: Spin the Yarn Competition	Date: 03/08/19
Venue: Backstage / Auditorium	Class: I

'There is no greater power on this earth than story.'

About the Event

Storytelling has always been featured strongly as an effective communication tool for students. It can be used to inform, entertain and educate. To enhance the confidence and story narrating skill of the students, Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar organised 'Spin the Yarn (Story narration) Competition' for the students of Std.- I. The young enthusiastic storytellers with the help of props narrated wonderful tales.

Objective of the Event

- To renew and promote the art of storytelling for children.
- To develop self-confidence and public speaking skills in children.
- To introduce some of the best stories in the oral tradition.
- To instil virtues and morals in children.
- To enhance communication at different levels.
- To improve listening skills of children.

The Event and Participation

The young enthusiastic storytellers armed with props came forth with wonderful tales. Some stories gave others food for thought, while some reinforced moral values. Some stories were fictional while some others were mythological. Students used their imagination to create value based stories on the topics of honesty, loyalty, truthfulness etc. Enthusiasm and passion of the students was witnessed by everyone. Three winners from each section were selected and were awarded with 1st, 2nd and 3rd prizes. The event was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by all present and it was a great success.
