Helpers week

'You have two hands - One to help yourself and the other to help others.'

The preparatory students celebrated Helpers week from 2ndJanuary to 4thJanuary. Different activities like videos on community helpers, flash cards and tools used by the helpers were shown. Thank you card was prepared by the students with the help of teachers for the School Helpers .

Tell a Tale

A wise man once said, "After nourishment, shelter and companionship, stories are the thing we need most in the world." It's the stories that give wings to a child's imagination and take him to places beyond the boundaries of his physical world and into the land of fairies, dragons and wishing trees. It is in their imagination that they embrace things and situations that they shy away from the real world. Since time immemorial, storytelling has been an integral part of childhood. To keep the tradition going and to incite curiosity and the love for reading in children, a story telling competition was held on 10th and 11th January.

Students narrated the stories which had moral values. Each student came up with a brilliant story which was narrated at the right pace with voice modulation, props, and facial expression using hand gestures. The event was judged by Mrs Muskan Lokwani, Mrs Alpa Bhatt, Mrs Manisha Yadav and Dr. Jyoti Patel. The Judges were over whelmed with their performance and had a tough time in selecting the best five from each class.

Pre-Primary Wing

Annual Picnic

'The best way to make children good is to make them happy.'

The most awaited day of the year was the school annual picnic organised on 5th January to Sterling Greenwoods Resort near Vaishnodevi Circle. The students were extremely excited and kept singing songs in the bus till they reached the venue. The most enjoyable time was in the play area with swings, slides, merry go round and jumping in air balloon. Children enjoyed camel cart ride and boat ride with their friends and teachers. The group photograph time was amusing for the students as they enjoyed making funny faces. After lunch it was movie time for the children when they enjoyed watching cartoon movie and puppet show too. It was a great day for all the students and teachers as it strengthened the bond between the students and their teachers.

Moral Value Week

'Good moral values are mostly moulded from a place where love, faith and hope exist.'

Moral value week was celebrated from 7th - 11th January for the tiny tots of Pre-Nursery to inculcate moral values among them. Each day was dedicated to various activities like assembly on moral values, story narration, puppet show, card making for parents and colouring in the pictures related to moral values. These activities encouraged students to initiate ethical changes by following moral values in their personal life as well as promoting them in the communities. The week concluded by showing short cartoon movie and singing songs.

Pre-Primary Wing

Uttarayan Celebration

An event is best experienced at the heart of all the action. A perfect example of this was the Uttarayan Celebration on 11th January. Students actively participated in decorating the kites with the help of their teachers. The little hands tried hard with colourful papers, crayons and ribbons. All they need was a windy sky to venture out. They were also shown various videos of kite flying. An assembly was also conducted by the children.

It was such a treat to them seeing the kites billowing in the breeze blanketing the crisp winter sky in colourful specs and a loud cheer of “Happy Uttarayan” boomed in the air.

Slogan Day

‘Get together, be the strength of the Nation and help it reach greatest heights.’

Slogan day was organised on 25th January to spread awareness among the students about the importance of Republic Day. Students were told that every year on 26th January Republic Day is celebrated with all its solemnity and grandeur in each and every corner of the nation. After understanding the importance and sacrifices of our great souls who fought for our freedom children were charged with a great sense of patriotism within them and enthusiastically participated in the Slogan Day. They carried placards with slogan like “Vande Mataram”, “Satyamev Jayate”, “Give me blood and I will give you freedom” etc and went around the Pre-Primary wing shouting aloud the slogans and wakened the spirit of Republic Day among other student too.

Pre-Primary Wing

Annual Sports Day

'Talent wins games, but team-work and intelligence wins championships.'

Sports day is a platform to showcase the talent and efforts put in by the little children to make it a successful event. Sports at pre-primary level are not about competition. It is about having fun, being physically active, building co-ordination and motor-skills, so to give the little angels an opportunity to display their self – confidence, patience, zeal and sportsmanship, Pre-Primary classes had the semi-final round of Sports Day on 22nd January and final round on 24th January. The event commenced with races like Fun with bangles, Ring the skittle, Get ready for the party and Compete with the task race.

Kids were enthralled indulging in games like Hurdle Race. At the end of the event participants got well-done badges and certificates. Winners were felicitated with medals along with the certificates for the same.

Pre-Primary Wing

Shape Day

'Beauty comes in all shapes and sizes.'

Shape Day activity was conducted for Pre Nursery on 25th January to promote creative and aesthetic skills. Children came dressed up with shape print dress along with any one cut out of shape. Tiny tots of Pre Nursery enjoyed some great ideas and played simple games about learning shapes. Children did lacing activity through the cut out of different shapes and that cut out was given as a takeaway. Printing activity with shapes was also done.

Animal Parade Day

Children of Pre Nursery celebrated Animal Parade Day on 28th January. They came dressed as different animals like lion, tiger, giraffe, rhinoceros, rabbit etc. They spoke and enacted about the animals by making sounds and doing the animal walk. They did printing and colouring activities on the paper plate as a take away of Animal Kingdom. They enjoyed inserting flash cards of wild, water and farm animals on the chart of 'Where do I live?' They also recited rhymes on animals. The day was entirely dedicated to the existence of the animal life and the message was delivered that we should not harm animals.

Pre-Primary Wing

Character Portrayal Day

Role play is an important part of child's development. Drama builds confidence, develops language and communication skills. It encourages children to cooperate and helps them to understand the world around them. To foster the imagination and creativity in tiny tots a "Character Portrayal Day" was organized for Nursery students on 30th January. Students dramatized as community helpers like Doctor, Chef, Teacher, Librarian, Gardener, Carpenter etc. They were motivated to convey their wishes to others and speak from the perspective of their pretended roles.

Visit to the Indroda National Park

A trip to Indroda National Park was organized on 29th January for the students of preparatory and pre-nursery. The national park is home to various animals, birds and reptiles. Students got super thrilled to see wild animals in their natural habitat. They were able to correlate the concepts they had been learning in school with real life experiences gathered at the park. They learned a lot about the animal kingdom and their importance. The most exciting part of the visit was the dinosaur park where they witnessed the replicas of the majestic creatures.

Pre-Primary Wing

Jig Saw Puzzle Competition

Jig Saw Puzzle competition was held for the tiny tots of Pre Nursery on 31st January. The aim was to develop three basic skills the Physical skills, Cognitive skills and Emotional skills in our tiny tots. Puzzle pieces of fruit and vegetable were given to the students to complete the picture by observing the full picture of the similar fruit and vegetable. The best quick five students to solve the puzzle were felicitated by badges of appreciation.

Primary Wing

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY ON MAKAR SANKRANTI

The Primary Wing of Delhi Public School Gandhinagar organized a special assembly on 11th January to celebrate the festival of Makar Sankranti to create awareness about the different forms of celebrations across India and to make students aware about our rich and diverse cultural heritage. Makar Sankranti is traditionally believed to mark the change of season in India and the commencement of harvesting season. As the festival is dedicated to the Sun God who is regarded as the symbol of divinity and wisdom the festival holds special significance for all. A special assembly was conducted to mark this pious occasion. The students showcased how the harvest festival is celebrated in various parts of India by wearing dresses from different states and also exhibiting various types of food consumed by the people during the festive period. The students also delivered beautiful messages in different languages to further enhance the festive spirit. The teachers also added more colours to the fun and celebrations by singing a Punjabi folk song on Lohri with everyone on the stage dancing to the beats of dhol. The students also sang a vibrant and energetic song on the occasion of Uttarayan celebrations.
