Story- Christmas Gift

Sonu lives with his parents. He is kind, obedient and shares all his toys with his friends. However, he has one fault: he always forgets to carry out errands and other important work he is told to do. Every time he is asked to do something and later questioned, he has one answer, "I forgot." If he is given money to pay the electricity bill, his mother would find the money and the bill in his pocket that night. The reason for not doing a particular job remains the same. You guessed it right – "I forgot." His parents are worried about the habit of forgetting to do things would spill over into his adult life too, which would prove to be difficult for him. They decide to do something about it to make him remember things. Christmas was nearby and like other children, he also got busy preparing notes for Santa, asking for his favourite things. His mother says, "Santa may forget to bring those things for you." But the little boy is sure that Santa wouldn't as he would put them in his stockings so he wouldn't miss the list. On Christmas morning, he wakes up early and rushes to check his stockings, pretty sure that Santa Claus would have delivered his gifts. His mother knew what was going to happen and keep away from him. The boy stands in front of his mother holding a long list of all the errands he was asked to run during the past year. At the end of the list, in bold letters was written, "I FORGOT." The little boy is heartbroken and drags himself to visit his grandfather with the rest of his family. On his grandfather's Christmas tree, the boy finds all the things he had wished for! Though he does not change immediately, his mother reminds him when things got out of hand – "Santa Claus does not forget!" He slowly understood why it is so important to remember one's duties and responsibilities in life.
