Graduation ceremony for tiny-tots

Graduation Day is a day of rejoicing as it signifies the culmination of years of hard work in the relentless pursuit of knowledge. Delhi Public School – Gandhinagar celebrated Graduation Ceremony to applaud the young enthusiastic learners of Pre-Primary Section for their commendable performance in the school premises.

The theme of the event was "Sharing – Touch a life forever". The program highlighted the sentiments of empathy and kindness towards the people who are not so blessed. The event was graced by Yogita B Ahuja, Founder & Director of Story Circle.

Pre primary students performed on theme-based songs and skits. They left everyone spell bound with their mesmerizing performance. Vibrant music, dance, breath-taking colours and coordinated movements promptly set the tone and mood of the atmosphere. Their energetic booming and clapping waxed the audience to sway to its beats.

Yogita addressed the gathering and emphasised on the importance of story narration every day. Principal, Atanu Rath emphasized upon the overall development of the students through various co-curricular activities in his speech. The Academic Coordinator, Neeti Jain presented school report highlighting the major activities that took place during the session and shared special achievements of students.

The most important part of the day – Graduation Ceremony started with the UKG students adorned in convocation capes walking the stage. Their smiling faces were welcomed by rapturous applause from the audience as they received scrolls of merit on the dais. The programme ended with the vote of thanks.
