Title: Rakhi Making Activity	Date: 03/08/19
Venue: Respective Classrooms	Class: II (A to H)

'Brothers and Sisters are as close as hands and feet'

About the Event

Raksha Bandhan or 'Rakhi' is a special occasion to celebrate the virtuous bond of love between a brother and a sister which is one of the deepest and noblest of all human emotions. To commemorate this festival, Delhi Public School Gandhinagar organized a Rakhi making activity for the students of Standard-II on 03 August 2019.

Objective of the Event

- To celebrate the bond of love between a brother and a sister.
- To enable the students to explore their imaginative and creative side.
- To enhance the art and craft skills of the students.
- To increase students' aesthetic appreciation.
- To make the students understand the significance of relationships in life.

The Event and participation

The theme of the Rakhi Making Competition was based on human bonding. This year the Independence Day coincided with the festival of Raksha Bandhan. To mark this coming together of two highly anticipated festivals, students prepared a special tri-colour Rakhi comprising of white and green coloured squares woven together with a blue coloured band. This designer Rakhi represented special bond shared between a brother and sister coupled with peace and prosperity for our motherland. The white colour stands for peace and harmony and green colour represents prosperity for all. These specially designed Rakhis by students symbolised communal harmony. The competition was a huge success with great participation and enthusiasm exhibited by all the students. It helped the students explore their creative side and was a welcome change from routine activities.
