"Character shows your good or bad personality"

To sow the seeds of good manners and etiquettes and to build a great personality, the children of class-I D organised an assembly on Monday, 3rd November 2018.

Theme: Golden Words

Class: Students of 1-D

Objective: To help the children understand the importance of golden words in their day to day life to develop their personality.

Programme: The assembly commenced with prayer followed by the pledge and thought. Then the students of Class ID performed a dance to depict the uses of golden words. Children enjoyed and understood the use of manners and etiquettes. It was followed by recitation of a poem. Then

The assembly concluded with the birthday wishes for tiny tots followed by a message from HM Mr. Rakesh Kumar Bhagat and National Anthem.

The assembly was dispersed with a positive note on building a good personality.
