Title: Character Enactment Competition	Date: 06-February-2021
Venue: Online Competition	Class: III (A to H)

About the Event

An Online English Character Enactment Competition was conducted by the Primary Wing of Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar where 34 students participated. The students portrayed various characters of Indian Mythology by speaking a few lines and dialogues emulating the chosen character using facial expressions, gestures and voice modulation.

Objective of the Event

- To provide a platform for budding orators and enthusiasts to display their creativity, talent and skills.
- To develop student's imagination and stimulate curiosity.

The Event & Participation

Research shows that competition encourages students to work harder, boosts confidence and enhance their public speaking skills. The Online Character Enactment Competition has proved it by showing that students can not only show their hidden talents but can exhibit confidence and enthusiasm.

The competition was based on a very interesting and stunning theme 'Indian Mythological Characters'. The students portrayed various roles of Indian Mythology like Krishna, Rama, Hanuman, goddess Lakshmi & Saraswati, various other characters of Ramayana and Mahabharata etc. All the participants put their best foot forward while emulating the speech and dialogues of the chosen characters. The best thing was the parents' involvement to come up with some excellent and unique ideas of presentation as it was an online competition.

The competitive event was highly innovative and the students showcased their talents enthusiastically. The competition inspired the students to visualise, work and enact creatively thus promoting their artistic skills. The event was a grand success.
