Event Report

Title: 'Young Voice Reporter'	Date: 23-10-2026
Venue: Auditorium	Class: V (A TO I)

"An informed voice, powered by knowledge, can change the world"

About the Event:

Students of Class V of Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar, participated in an Inter-House Competition on 23 October 2026, themed 'The Young Voice Reporter.' The competition provided a platform for young journalists to showcase their reporting skills, creativity, and confidence. Through their presentations on real-world issues, students highlighted the importance of media, awareness, and effective communication, demonstrating how an informed voice can make a meaningful difference.

Objectives of the Event:

- ❖ To understand the role of the Young Voice Reporter initiative in encouraging young people to express their views and opinions.
- ❖ To enhance students' research, observation and communication skills.
- ❖ To examine how the initiative promotes awareness of social, educational, and community-related issues among young people.
- ❖ To encourage students to engage with real-world issues and current affairs.
- ❖ To provide a platform for students to express themselves creatively and confidently.

The Event and Participation:

The competition commenced with an introduction to the theme, 'The Young Voice Reporter,' setting the stage for an engaging and informative session. The students stepped into the role of young journalists and presented their reports with creativity, confidence, and enthusiasm.

Their reports covered a variety of topics, including the floods in Bihar and Nepal, highlighting the situation and relief efforts for those affected. Some students explored science and technology through the Vikram-1 mission, while others shared information about the school's 'Go Green' activity. Sports also emerged as an interesting topic among the young reporters.

Through their presentations, the students highlighted how media can spread awareness and bring positive change. The competition encouraged them to develop their research skills, broaden their knowledge, and express their thoughts confidently.

The enthusiastic participation and impressive performances of the students made 'The Young Voice Reporter' a meaningful and memorable event.
