About the Event

The Primary Wing of Delhi Public School Gandhinagar conducted the Inter-House Competition – TEDdy TALKS for Class IV on July 3, 2026. The event gave students a wonderful opportunity to express their ideas creatively while showcasing their confidence and public speaking skills.

Objectives:

- ♣ To develop students' public speaking and communication skills.
- ♣ To encourage creativity and imaginative thinking.
- ♣ To build confidence and stage presence among students.

The Event & Participation

TEDdy TALKS an exciting Inter house public speaking competition was conducted on July 3, 2026 for Class IV students. Students enthusiastically presented their ideas on a variety of thought-provoking topics, including If I Had Magical Powers, If I Could Change One Thing in the World, I Woke Up in a Cartoon World, If I Became a Genie for a Day, and A Robot as My Best Friend. Among all the themes, "If I Became a Genie for a Day" emerged as the most popular and captivating. The participants impressed the audience with their confident delivery, humour, and wonderfully imaginative ideas, making the competition both entertaining and inspiring.

The event was a delightful celebration of creativity and effective communication, encouraging students to think beyond the ordinary and express themselves with confidence.
