“Celebrate the harvest, honour the farmer, and protect nature.”

About the event:

Harvest festivals in India represent gratitude, prosperity, and togetherness, reflecting the nation's rich cultural heritage. Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar organised a special morning assembly on 13 January 2026 to celebrate India's harvest festivals—Uttarayan, Makar Sankranti, Magh Bihu, Lohri, and Pongal. The assembly was conducted with great enthusiasm and aimed to highlight the cultural diversity of the country while reinforcing the spirit of unity in diversity.

Objectives:

- To instil values of love, kindness, and sharing among students.
- To foster a spirit of unity and togetherness through collective celebration.
- To promote an understanding of harvest festivals, highlighting their role in spiritual growth, social bonding, and good health.

The event and participation

The programme commenced with the lighting of the bonfire by the respected Principal, Ms. Anju Singh, and the Headmaster, Mr. Rakesh Kumar Bhagat, symbolising warmth, prosperity, and gratitude towards nature. This auspicious beginning set a festive and joyful tone for the celebration.

This was followed by a melodious musical presentation by the students of Class II G, whose soulful performance filled the atmosphere with cheer and festive spirit. The audience was then treated to a vibrant dance performance by the students of Class V A, beautifully depicting the joy and significance of harvest festivals celebrated across different regions of India.

A special highlight of the assembly was the surprise Giddha performance by the teachers, which was received with great enthusiasm and applause. Their energetic presentation truly brought alive the spirit of Lohri and added a memorable dimension to the celebration.

Addressing the gathering, the Principal Ma'am appreciated the sincere efforts of the students and teachers. In her address, she emphasised the values of love, togetherness, and sharing, highlighting the enduring cultural significance of Uttarayan.

The assembly concluded with a meaningful message emphasising gratitude towards farmers, respect for nature, and the importance of unity and harmony. The celebration left everyone with a sense of joy, cultural pride, and a deep appreciation for India's rich traditions.
