Event Report

Title: "Janmashtami, Ganesh Chaturthi & Teachers' Day"	Date: 03-09-2026
Venue: School Atrium	Class: IV B & I C

Where devotion inspires the heart, wisdom guides the mind, and gratitude shapes the soul, every celebration becomes a lesson for life.

About the Event:

When tradition comes alive through young hearts, celebrations become truly memorable."

Delhi Public School Gandhinagar organised a Special Assembly on 3 September 2026 to celebrate the auspicious occasions of Janmashtami, Ganesh Chaturthi, and Teachers' Day. The assembly brought together the spirit of devotion, cultural heritage, and gratitude, creating a vibrant and joyous atmosphere across the school.

The occasion featured a delightful array of student performances, including a melodious Teachers' Day song expressing love and gratitude towards teachers, a vibrant dance dedicated to Lord Ganesha, and a graceful Janmashtami dance performance by Classes IV-B and I-C, adding colour, rhythm, and festive fervour to the celebration.

Objectives:

- To celebrate the auspicious occasions of Janmashtami, Ganesh Chaturthi, and Teachers' Day with enthusiasm, joy, and reverence.
- To foster cultural expression through music, dance, and creative performances.
- To nurture values of gratitude, respect, and appreciation towards teachers and their invaluable contribution.
- To provide students with a platform to showcase their talent, creativity, confidence, and artistic expression.

The Event & Participation

The Special Assembly, held on Thursday, 3 September 2026, brought the festive spirit of Janmashtami, Ganesh Chaturthi, and Teachers' Day to life through a vibrant blend of music, dance, devotion, and gratitude. The occasion was graced by the presence of Principal Ms. Anju Singh and Headmaster Mr. Rakesh Kumar Bhagat.

The programme began with a melodious Teachers' Day song, expressing heartfelt gratitude, love, and respect towards teachers and their invaluable role in shaping young minds. A lively and colourful dance dedicated to Lord Ganesha followed, adding vibrancy and festive cheer to the celebration. The graceful Janmashtami dance performance by Classes IV-B and I-C further enhanced the devotional spirit of the occasion.

The performances beautifully reflected the students' enthusiasm, creativity, and appreciation for India's rich cultural heritage. The Principal's speech encouraged the students to look beyond the festivities and understand the deeper values associated with the occasions. She emphasised that gratitude, respect, kindness, and devotion should be reflected in their everyday actions, reminding them that true celebration lies in putting these values into practice. Her inspiring words left a lasting impression, adding depth and meaning to the celebration.
