Title: “Sacred Lands-Create a Keychain”	Date: 18/04/2026
Venue: Class	Class: VII

“India is a country in which every great religion finds a home.”
— Annie Besant

The Social Science Department of Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar organised an intra-class competition titled “Sacred Lands – Create a Keychain” for Class VII on 18 April 2026. The objective of the competition was to deepen students’ understanding of the cultural and spiritual significance of sacred lands through a hands-on, creative learning experience.

Students enthusiastically participated by designing unique and attractive keychains using materials such as cardboard or thermocol, complemented with metal key rings. Each creation reflected thoughtful imagination, artistic expression, and a clear understanding of the theme. The diversity in designs highlighted the creativity and effort of the students, making the competition lively and engaging.

The participants demonstrated commendable enthusiasm throughout the activity. Their work was appreciated by the teachers for its neat presentation, originality, and meaningful representation of the topic. The competition successfully integrated learning with creativity, allowing students to explore the subject in an innovative and enjoyable manner while strengthening their conceptual understanding.
