

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL GANDHINAGAR

Academic Session 2025-26

Event Report

Title: Special Assembly on Basant Panchami	Date: January 23, 2026
Venue: Auditorium	Class: Pre-Primary

“Let knowledge bloom like spring flowers and fill young minds with wisdom.”

Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar, celebrated Basant Panchami with great enthusiasm and devotion on January 23, 2026. Students of the Pre-primary section participated wholeheartedly, spreading joy and positivity across the campus. The venue was beautifully decorated in shades of yellow, symbolizing the arrival of spring and new beginnings.

The celebration included a special assembly conducted by the students of LKG -C, during which the students delivered speeches highlighting the significance of Basant Panchami and the tradition of Saraswati Puja. Cultural performances showcased the students' talents in music and dance, reflecting joy and appreciation for Indian heritage. The young learners enjoyed colouring and craft activities related to the festival.

The principal addressed the gathering and enlightened the young minds with her inspiring speech, highlighting the importance of knowledge, values, and learning from an early age.

The celebration of Basant Panchami not only marked the beginning of spring but also underscored the importance of education, art, and wisdom in the lives of young learners.
