

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL GANDHINAGAR

Academic Session 2025-26

Event Report

Title: Children's Day	Date: 14-11-2025
Venue: School Atrium	Class: II-A & III-A

About the Event

Children's Day is celebrated across India on 14th November every year to commemorate the birth anniversary of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India, who was fondly known as Chacha Nehru for his deep love and affection for children. To honour his memory and celebrate the joy of childhood, Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar, organized a special assembly for the Primary Wing on 14th November 2025. The event was filled with joy, laughter, and vibrant performances that beautifully captured the innocence, enthusiasm, and energy of children.

Objectives

- ❖ To rejoice in the spirit of childhood and appreciate the innocence, enthusiasm, and joy that children bring to life.
- ❖ To pay tribute to Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, lovingly known as Chacha Nehru, for his deep affection and concern for children.
- ❖ To encourage students to express their talents and creativity in a joyful manner that reflects the true essence of Children's Day.
- ❖ To nurture the values of love, happiness, and togetherness, inspired by Nehruji's vision of a bright and joyful childhood for every child.

The Event & Participation

Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar, organized a special assembly on 14 November 2025 to celebrate Children's Day with immense enthusiasm and joy. The event commenced with a cheerful welcome, followed by a soulful morning prayer that created an atmosphere of positivity and gratitude. The Thought for the Day inspired everyone with the message that children are the true strength and future of the nation.

The news segment, presented in a creative and engaging manner, updated the audience about recent school and national events. The highlight of the celebration was a thought-provoking mime performance by the students of Class III-A, which beautifully portrayed the innocence and emotions of childhood — full of dreams, curiosity, and compassion. This was followed by an energetic dance performance by the students of Class II-A, who lit up the stage with their graceful movements and infectious enthusiasm. Adding to the celebration, a special musical presentation by the teachers was dedicated to the students. Their melodious voices and heartfelt performance brought smiles to every face and created a warm, affectionate atmosphere, highlighting the strong bond between teachers and students.

The assembly concluded with an inspiring address by Principal Ms. Anju Singh, who commended the efforts of the students and teachers for presenting such a delightful programme. She encouraged everyone to preserve the spirit of childhood within themselves and to continue spreading joy, kindness, and positivity in their daily lives. Her words served as a beautiful reminder of the values that Children's Day stands for — love, innocence, and the boundless energy of youth.
