Tongue Twisters

- A tongue twister is defined as a phrase or sentence that is hard to speak fast, usually because of alliteration or a sequence of nearly similar sounds.

Can you read the tongue – twister at once without making any mistake? Try this fun activity:

She sells seashells on the sea shore.
The shells she sells are seashells I'm sure. For if she sells seashells on the seashore, then I'm sure she sells seashore shells.

Betty Botter bought some butter, but she said, "This butter is bitter, bitter is bad for batter." So, she bought some better butter to make bitter batter better.

I wish to wish the wish you wish to wish, but if you wish to wish, the witch wishes, I won't wish the wish you wish to wish.

If you understand, say "understand".
If you don't understand, say "don't understand".
But if you understand and say "don't understand",
how do I understand that you understand?
Understand!
