“Literature finds its true voice when readers step into the lives of its characters.”

The English Department of Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar organized a Character Talk Activity for the students of Class VIII on 17 January 2026 with the aim of enhancing creativity, literary understanding, and spoken expression. The activity encouraged students to step into the shoes of literary characters and express their thoughts and emotions with confidence.

All students participated individually by selecting characters from classic and contemporary literary works. The classroom came alive with engaging portrayals of characters such as Anne Frank, Portia, Oliver Twist, Matilda, Sherlock Holmes, and Juliet. Speaking from the perspective of their chosen characters within a stipulated time of ninety seconds, students showcased imaginative interpretation, linguistic clarity, and expressive confidence. Many participants added creative value to their performances through costumes and props.

Conducted as part of Art Integrated Learning, the activity proved to be an enriching experience that helped students think beyond the text and develop effective communication skills. The enthusiasm and originality displayed reflected the students' keen interest in literature and language learning.
