About the Event

In today's digital age, where storytelling meets technology, the English Department of Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar organized a one-of-a-kind inter-house competition — Vlog Voyage — for Class V students on October 10, 2025.

Objectives:

- ♠ To encourage the use of digital media as a tool for storytelling and learning.
- ♠ To develop public speaking and acting skills among young learners.
- ♠ To promote creativity, confidence, and collaboration among students

The Event & Participation

The English Department of Delhi Public School, Gandhinagar, organized an innovative inter-house competition titled 'Vlog Voyage' for the students of Class V on October 10, 2025. The event aimed to combine creativity with communication skills by allowing students to create and present their own vlogs.

The competition featured a variety of engaging themes, including Creative & DIY Vlog, Festival & Cultural Vlog, Food Vlog, and Travel Vlog. Participants came up with exciting ideas and presented their vlogs with great enthusiasm. The travel vlogs were particularly captivating, taking the audience on a virtual journey to beautiful destinations within and beyond India. Students also showcased their talents in food and DIY vlogs, demonstrating creativity and clarity in expression.

The participants dressed appropriately according to their vlog themes, adding authenticity and charm to their presentations. Vlog Voyage successfully provided a platform for students to explore new-age communication while blending learning with fun and creativity.
