Title: GLASS PAINTING – ART & CRAFT INTER HOUSE COMPETITION	Date: 03-11-2023
Venue: Classrooms	Class: III (A to H)

About the Event

Glass Painting – Art and Craft Competition was held on November 3, 2023, for Class III students where the students demonstrated their ability to create intricate designs and vibrant colours on the OHP sheets or Acrylic sheets.

The Objective of the Event

- ♣ To encourage artistic expression and develop the student's skills in the field of glass painting.
- ♣ To improve the student's ability to use materials, tools and techniques.

The Event & Participation

In the Class III students' glass painting art and craft competition, the participants showcased their creativity by painting on OHP sheets. The use of different techniques, such as layering and blending, added depth and dimension to their artwork. The students' attention to detail and precision in their brushwork was commendable.

The competition provided an opportunity for the Class III students to explore their artistic abilities and experiment with different materials. The use of OHP sheets as a medium also encouraged them to think outside the box and explore unconventional surfaces for their artwork.

Overall, the glass painting art and craft competition for Class III students on OHP sheets was a successful event that showcased the students' creativity and talent. It provided them with a platform to express themselves artistically and develop their skills in the field of glass painting.
