Academic session 2022-23

Activity Report

Title: Story on the Plates- English Storytelling Competition	Date: 18/11/2022
Venue: Auditorium	Class: II (A to H)

“Young children learn more from storytelling than formal methods of teaching.”

About the Event

It is a fact that STORYTELLING is an interesting way to teach our children about good morals and right conduct. Delhi Public School Gandhinagar also believes that stories with value-based always helps children to imbibe good habits and even help them to become a good individual. Keeping this in mind, “ENGLISH STORYTELLING COMPETITION” was conducted for the students of Class II (A to H) on 18th November, 2022.

Objectives of the Event:

- To improve imagination skills and creativity.
- To make them familiar with new vocabulary.
- To imbibe the values through stories in an enjoyable and stress-free manner.

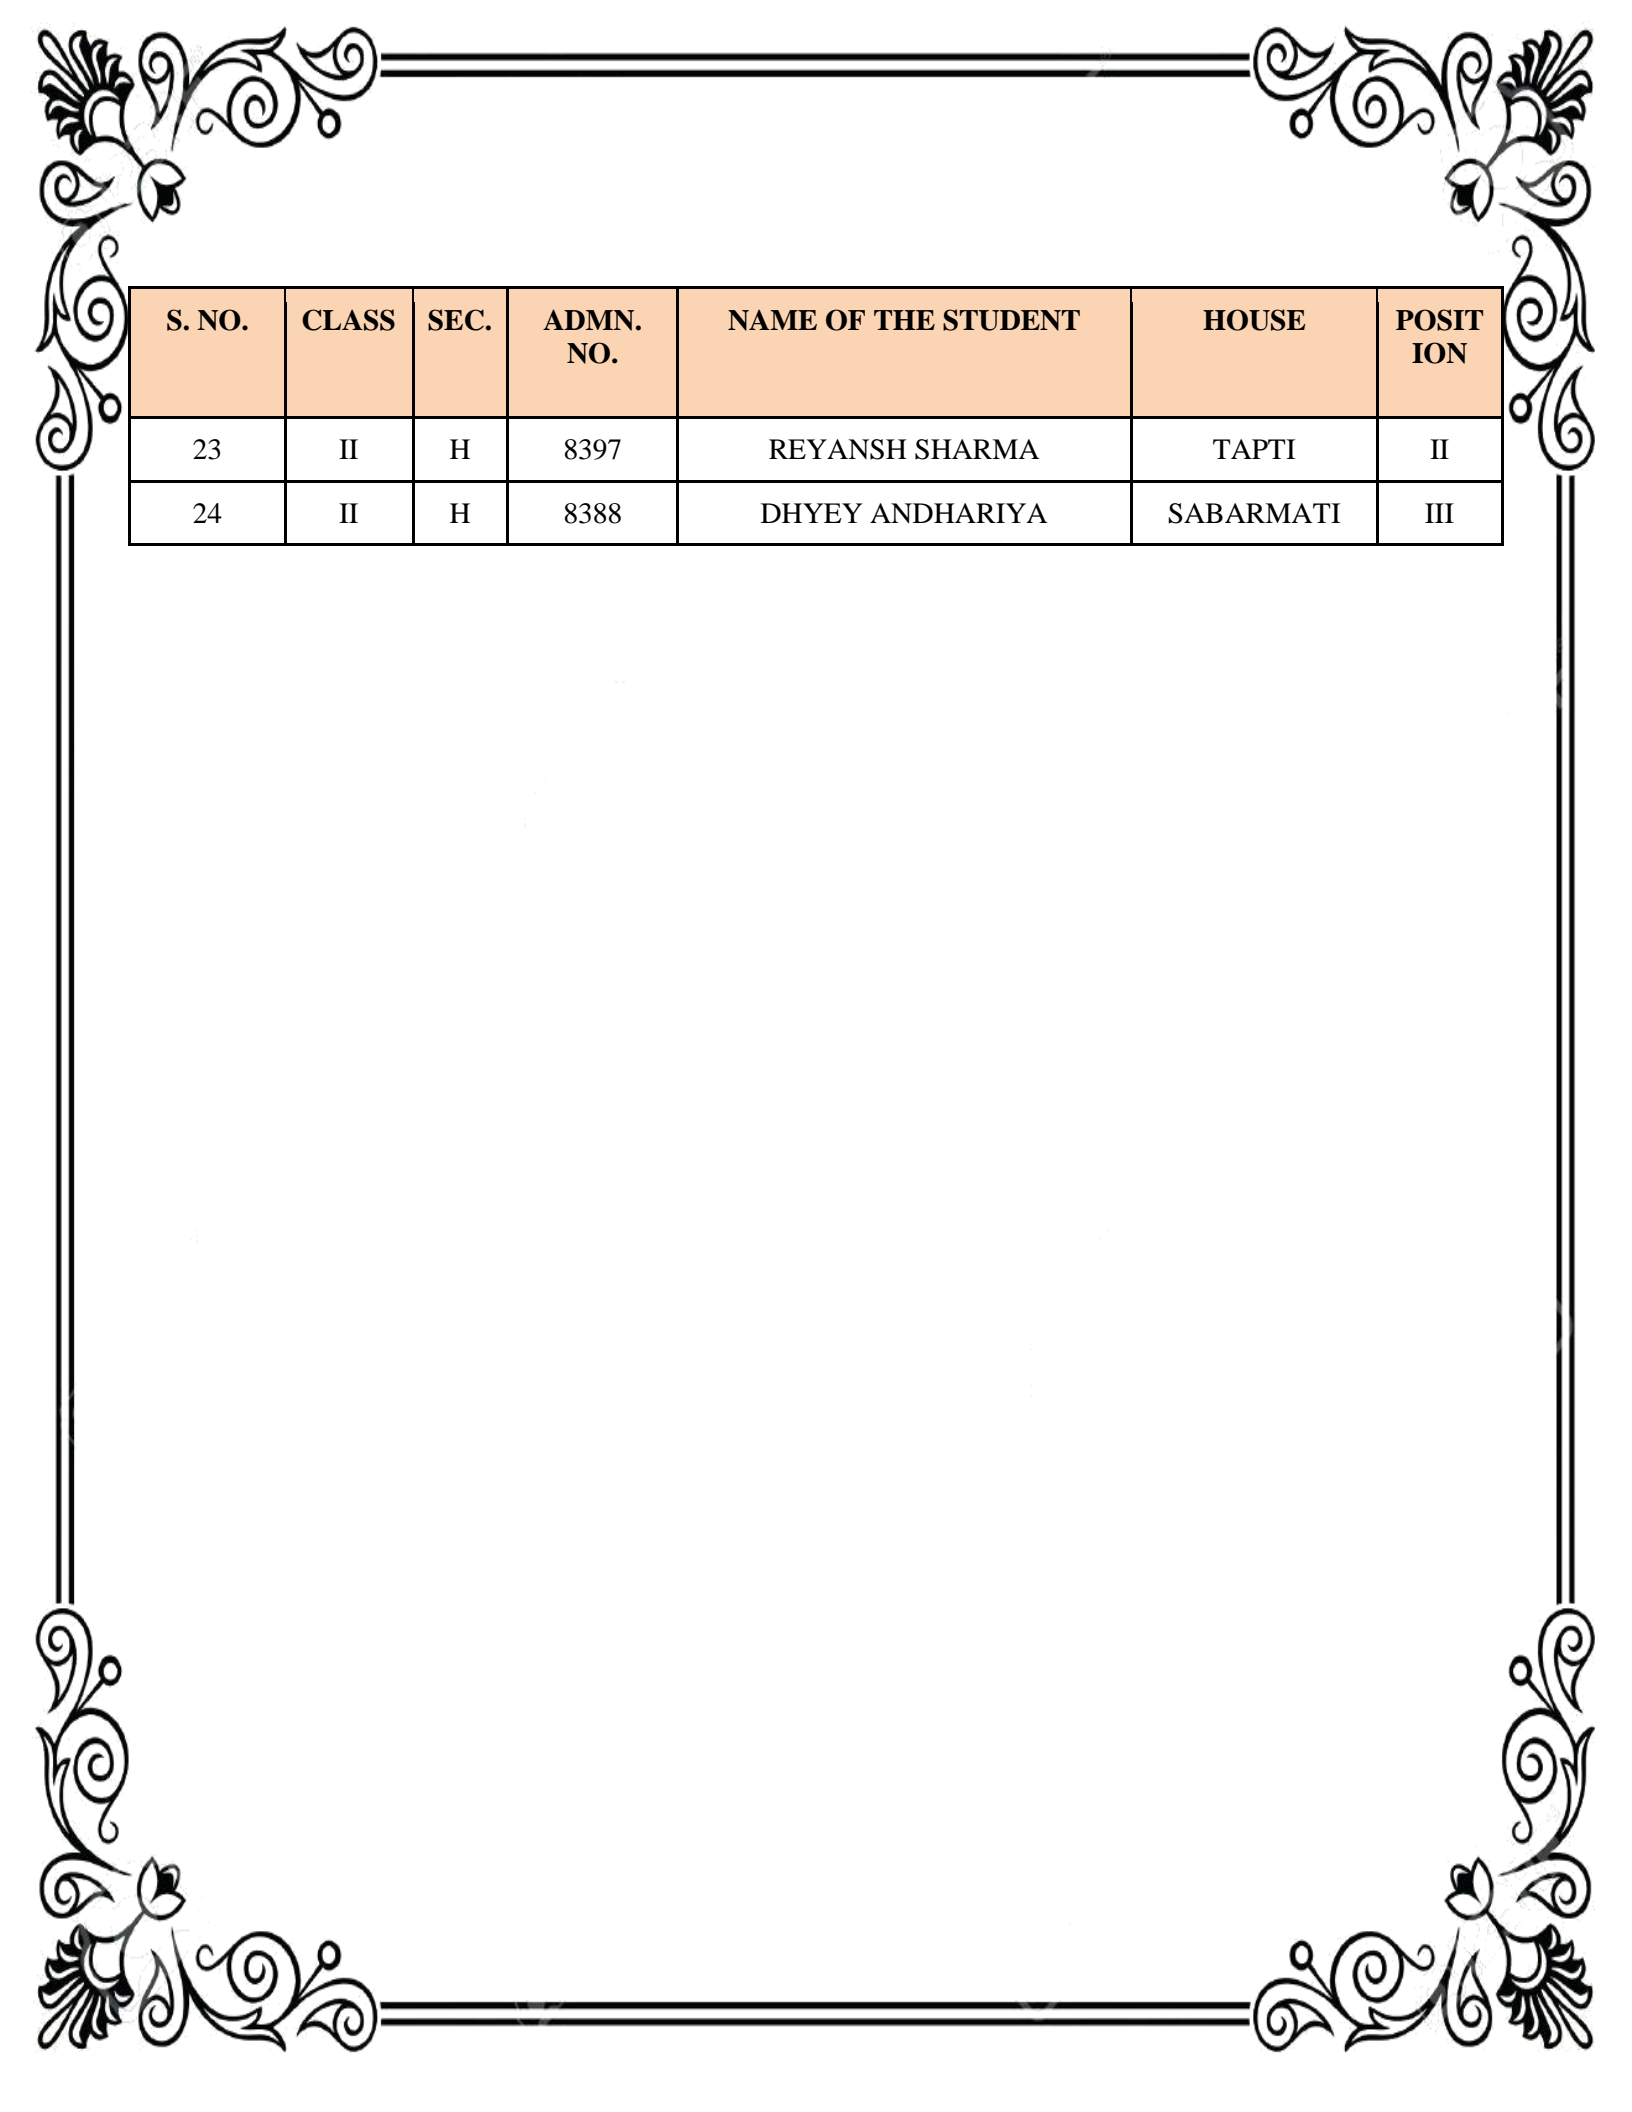

The Event & Participation

Our young story narrators of Class-II illustrated beautiful and moral based stories. They demonstrated their imagination and creativity by presenting their different stories in a very fascinating and exciting way. It was a wonderful opportunity for them to think out of the box. The sole purpose of this competition was to give them a platform to display their talent, skills and to know about various stories. Students were delighted to be a part of this wonderful competition.
